

February 2018

Dear Parents,

To coincide with World Book Day, Bournville Infant School is going to be holding their own special Book Day to help celebrate the joy of books and reading on Thursday 1st March.

On this day we would like all pupils to get dressed up as a well known book character and be prepared to talk to their class about their character and what book their character is from. So get creative with those costumes everyone! On this day we would also like them to bring in to school their favourite book for a special whole school " snuggle up with a good book " time. During the day all children will be participating in many fun activities involving some of our favourite books and authors and will be busy becoming authors and illustrators themselves.

March is a great time for Books in Bournville with our own Bournville Bookfest launching a couple of weeks later on the 15th - 25th March. For further information on the Book Festival and to purchase tickets please go to www.bournvillebookfest.com, as a huge range of authors, writers, illustrators, cartoonists, poets, historians, storytellers, journalists, actors and dancers are heading up events for all ages at many venues across the city including our own school !

We hope you will support us with this day and the take advantage of the Book Fest!

Yours sincerely,

The Staff @ Bournville Infants School
