Bournville Infant School and Bournville Junior School Amalgamation: Statutory (Formal) Consultation

Dear parents, carers or guardians,

We wrote to you in January to inform you that Birmingham City Council, as the Local Authority for Birmingham, with the joint Governing Board of both of the schools was consulting on a proposal to amalgamate Bournville Infant School and Bournville Junior School to create one all through primary school.

The informal consultation ran for 7 weeks from 15th January to 2nd March. During this time we received 38 responses, 32 in favour and 5 either didn't know or didn't specify.

We have considered all the responses received and will now be commencing a further formal consultation on the proposal to amalgamate the two schools.

The proposed date for the amalgamation is now 29th April 2019 (not 1st January 2019 as previously stated).

The final proposal document (which includes an analysis of the responses received to the informal consultation) can be found here:

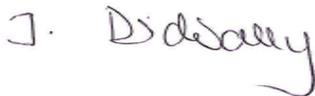

<https://www.birminghambeheard.org.uk/people-1/bournvilleijfinal>. (Live from 14th June 2018.)

This formal consultation will run for four weeks from 14th June to 11th July 2018 (midnight). Anyone wishing to make comments during this period may do so via the webpage above or by writing to the School Organisation Team using the address at the foot of this letter.

At the end of this consultation all responses received will be forwarded along with a report to the decision makers. A decision will be made no later than 11th September 2018. When the decision has been made we will notify you of the outcome.

Please contact the School Organisation Team if you need the proposal in a different format.

Yours sincerely,

Jaswinder Didiully
